PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release: July 29, 2020

Hunters are encouraged to obtain licenses, harvest tickets online

July 29, 2020 (Juneau) – With fall hunting seasons approaching, the Alaska Department of Fish and Game encourages hunters to go online for permits, licenses and harvest tickets to help reduce the potential spread of COVID-19 in communities and to help maintain a healthy working environment for staff in area offices.

Nearly all public services offered by ADF&G can be found online at <https://www.adfg.alaska.gov/index.cfm?adfg=hunting.main>

Please visit our online store at: <https://www.adfg.alaska.gov/Store/>

To report your harvest online, go to: <https://www.adfg.alaska.gov/Harvest/>

Additionally, if you have questions please contact your local ADF&G office. Contact numbers can be found here: <https://www.adfg.alaska.gov/index.cfm?adfg=contacts.main>

Hunters and trappers are reminded that all seasons remain open as scheduled during the COVID-19 pandemic unless changed by emergency order. All emergency orders and announcements can be found here <http://www.adfg.alaska.gov/index.cfm?adfg=newsreleases.main>

Please be aware of local recommendations and mandates. In-state travel is allowed for all purposes, however local communities may (and do) enact their own requirements and rules for travelers. Always check borough and city orders before departing on travel. This list provides links to local government COVID-19 information websites. <https://covid19.alaska.gov/local-borough-resources/>

Details regarding specific requirements can be found at <https://covid19.alaska.gov/health-mandates/>. As we learn more about the COVID pandemic, mandates and associated requirements will change. Please check this website frequently for updates.

Please practice social distancing and follow local mandates regarding the wearing of masks in public places. If you must visit an ADF&G office, please wear a mask.
