

Submitted by Erik Huebsch

February 11, 2014

To date, every action taken by the Board during this meeting is contributing paragraphs, pages and chapters to the next revision of The King of Fish.

Habitat issues have been avoided, ignored and dismissed when raised by participants.

Much lip service has been given to the growing human populations in the Cook Inlet Basin but no meaningful actions have been taken to actually conserve fish stocks and their spawning and rearing habitats.