meeting. According to Central Peninsula, the corresponding regulations printed and sent to the Lieutenant Governor did not meet the intent of the proposal. The board agreed the published regulation did not meet the board's intent and recommended Central Peninsula submit an agenda change request to allow the board to follow up on the issue.

- 3. Board travel – The board and staff discussed non-board meeting travel. It was agreed if a board member desired to travel on board business out of the meeting cycle, that request would go to the chair and if approved, would then follow the department's corresponding travel approval process.
